

Memory

Andrew Lloyd Webber

I am completely in love with Andrew Lloyd Webber... this song is from his musical Cats.

it sounds beautiful finger-picked with the chords below. This song is in 6/8 time...

I don't really know all the lyrics but you get the general idea, if you know the melody or are playing along with the song.. There are more than just a few key changes, but basically the form of the song is the same throughout..Enjoy!

[Verse 1]

D Bm
Daylight, see the dew on the sunflower
G
And a rose that is fading
F#m
Roses wither away

Like the sunflower I yearn to turn my face to the dawn
A D
I am waiting for the day

Bb Gm
Midnight, not a sound on the pavement
Eb Dm

In the lamplight the withered leaves collect at my feet
F Bb
And the wind begins to moan

[Verse 3]

Bb Gm
Memory, all alone in the moonlight

I remember the time I knew what happiness was

Let the memory live again

Of my days in the sun

If you touch me you'll understand what happiness is
