Lyrics:

He got his walls and his ways
Waves are gone, he has his days
Has a lot on his mind too bad
Heâ€™s only happy if heâ€™s sad

Has his cannons which he fires
The only boy I know who can not cry

I can see the ground I canâ€™t see you
And see our hometown I canâ€™t see you
Leave the lights on when Iâ€™ll go
So I can watch you down below

Has his loss, been his loss
There were bridges he had to cross
We have bridges that we burn
And have so much we had to learn

He has his cannons which he fires
The only boy I know who can not cry

I can see the ground I canâ€™t see you
And see our hometown I canâ€™t see you
Leave the lights on when Iâ€™ll go
So I can watch you down below

The only boy I know who can not cry

I can see the ground I canâ€™t see you
And see our hometown I canâ€™t see you
Leave the lights on when Iâ€™ll go
So I can watch you down below

I can see the ground I canâ€™t see you
And see our hometown I canâ€™t see you
Leave the lights on when Iâ€™ll go
So I can watch you down below
