C G
When we re born into this world
 D G
We don t really get to say
 C G D
Little boys and little girls handed the brand new families
 C G
There comes a time in life
 D Em
When we finally get to choose
 C G C G
And I choose you, I choose you

C G
We can t give our two cents
 D Em
Of how tall we want to be
 C G
We don t get an opinion
 D
On our ethnicity
 C G
But the one we spend our life with
D Em
That we get to choose
 C G C G
And I choose you, I choose you

D Em C G
I choose you, to be by my side
 D Em C G
I choose you, to hold me at night
 D Em C G
It s the biggest decision I m about to get right
 C G C G
I choose you, I choose you

C G
Everybody has one,

D Em
 A choice they get to make
C G
 Half human half heaven
D
 That decides the family tree
C G
 Now we all pick the branches
D Em
 That then becomes the roots
C G C G
 And I choose you, I choose you

D Em C G
 I choose you, to be by my side
D Em C G
 I choose you, to hold me at night
D Em C G
 It s the biggest decision I m about to get right
C G C G
 I choose you, I choose you

D Em G C G
 I was worried I would not know what to do
C G
 If I was in these shoes
D Em G C G
 Standing here it s clearer than the sky is blue
C G D
 That I choose you, I choose you
C G D Em
 With so little we control, thank God it s in the rules
C G C G
 We get to choose, and I choose you

D Em C G
 I choose you, to be by my side
D Em C G
 I choose you, to hold me at night
D Em C G
 It s the biggest decision I m about to get right
C G C G
 I choose you, I choose you
C G C G
 I choose you, I choose you
