[Verse 1]

G

My good friend Paul was lying in

G

The backseat of a station wagon

Em C G

Headed to New Mexico

G

Somewhere in the middle of the night the driver fell asleep

Em C G

And hit the wall beside the road

D Em C G

My friend went through the window like a bullet through the glass

Am G C D

Dead before he ever hit the ground

[Chorus 1]

Em C G Em C G

Oh I believe though its hard sometimes

Am C G C G C G

You are the resurrection and the life

[Verse 2]

G

Jody is a queen reigning

G

Prone upon a couch

Em C G

For the past few years of numbered days

G

Because the virus in her body and

G

The cancer in her brain
 Em C G
 Are buying up the real estate
 D Em
 The medicine they give her
 C G
 Trades nightmares for her dreams
 Am G C D
 Of memories too tragic to describe

[Chorus 2]

 Em C G Em C G
 Oh I believe though its hard sometimes
 Am C G C G C G
 You are the resurrection and the life
 D Em C
 I know the words of life to come are true
 G D Em
 But sometimes they feel like salt upon the wound
 C G Am
 When Iâ€™m asking in these moments where are you
 C D G C G C G
 Where are you?

[Verse 3]

G
 Sometimes its like Lazarus,
 G
 You come to roll the stone away
 Em C G
 And watch him walk back out alive
 G
 Sometimes its like my good friend Paul,
 G
 Breathless on the interstate
 Em C G
 Mother weeping at his side

[Outro]

 D Em C G
 Either way its something I will never understand
 Am G C D
 But I trust enough to take you at your word
 Em C G Em C G
 So I believe though its hard sometimes
 Am C G C G C G
 You are the resurrection and the life

(Just continue the rocking pattern with the C and G until the end of the song)
