

La La La

Angela Leoncio

Here is a song one of my friends wrote.

It s originally played with a capo on the 8th fret and with the chords D Bm Em A, but it s hard to play with large fingers and a small fretboard.

Just listen to the video for the strumming pattern. The strumming while singing is slower. Video link down below.

Capo 3

Intro: G Em Am D (2x)

VERSE 1:

G Em Am D
The words in me got tangled up inside
G Em Am D
The big grin on my face, I tried to hide.
G Em Am D G
I admit when I saw you, I felt so lyrical.
Em Am D
Seeing you there, it was so unpredictable.

G Em Am D (pause if you want to)

CHORUS 1:

G Em
Boy, you make me dance; dance and sing.
Am D
Yeah, you make me laugh at everything.
G Em
The sound of your voice; the look in your eyes,
Am D
Make me wait for the morning sun to rise
G Em
You re the first that is on my mind
Am D G
and the last thing as I close my eyes.
Em Am D G
All I can say to you is La La La.

G Em Am D (2x) (pause if you want to)

VERSE2:

G Em Am D
That feeling I get when you say hi,

Our eyes meet and the fireworks fly

It makes me want to jump everywhere

G Em Am D (pause if you want to)
