

La La La
Angela Leoncio

Here is a song one of my friends wrote.

It s originally played with a capo on the 8th fret and with the chords D Bm Em A, but it s hard to play with large fingers and a small fretboard.

Just listen to the video for the strumming pattern. The strumming while singing is slower. Video link down below.

Capo 3

Intro: G# Fm Bbm Eb (2x)

VERSE 1:

G# Fm Bbm Eb
The words in me got tangled up inside
G# Fm Bbm Eb
The big grin on my face, I tried to hide.

Fm Bbm Eb
Seeing you there, it was so unpredictable.

Bbm Eb
Make me wait for the morning sun to rise
