(acapella for two lines)

She can run free forever

Still our blood runs us together

I ll be there if she runs home

For worse or better

I know you like Adam knew Eve

Every tear you cry is a tear that I will bleed

Sleep baby don t you cry

Daddy s got a worn-out lullaby (yeah)

And I live forever dark and damned
To see you spend one minute girl
In wonderland

Live forever dark and damned
To see you spend one minute baby
in wonderland
