VERSE 1

Intro: G C(add9) Am C D

G	C(add9)	Am	C	D
Instrument,	of evil,	here to depress	the planet
You make me feel,	like my body is made of	solid granite
About a month ago	I weighed my self,	115, I thought it was	nifty.
But I was wrong,	oh so wrong,	I weighed in at	one fifty.

Chorus:

Cellulite, get off my thighs,
You're gross and you scare away the guys.
Flabby arms, fly me away, don't make me look
At how much I weigh.

VERSE 2

Size 3, you belong on the rack,
?cause all you do, is ride up my crack.
Size 7, I wear you proudly,
Size 9, I'll yell it loudly.

Chorus.

VERSE 3

I step on the scale, the numbers keep on rising.
If I gained a hundred pounds, it wouldn't be surprising.
It's kind of depressing, the way things are going,
I just can't help it, my thighs won't stop growing.

Chorus.

Hey, if you have any questions or comments, or anything,
Write me and we'll chat. Oh, if you are wondering, I do

Parties. 
