E	D#m	C#m	D#m	B
I eat a mango and I m feeling like a little honey can roll
E	D#m	C#m	D#m	B
Star fruit so simple and I m feeling like a little honey can roll
E	D#m	C#m	D#m	B
How could I feel so so when I m feeling like a little honey can roll
E	D#m	C#m	D#m	B
Tart but not total and I m feeling like a little honey can roll

G#m	C#m
When I was young I thought fruit was an infinite thing

F#

E

I d be sad to wake up and find all of my cherries are charred or they re rotted to ruin

F#
It seems we all can't last

E

Oh pink lady your days so distinguished are a movement so fluid

F#
So smooth against my palm

Reminisce of the days when they all praised your sweet red delicious

A	B	A	B
When a farmer picks a good thing (when you think you don t know you don t know what comes next)

A	B	A	B
Then a kid he picks a good thing (When you think you don t know you don t know what comes next)

A	B	A	B
Then a chef she makes a good thing (When you think you don t know you don t know what comes next)

A	B	A	B
Then a mayor eats a good thing (When you think you don t know you don t know what comes next)

C#m	F#	C#m	F#
Ripe and whole we can move outside us (x4)

B Take for me take for me pictures of valleys with lemons hung E
F# Dangling dangling they will be released every little piece does make a one B
E Brown on the ground can you show me a way I can simplify C#m
D#m Comfort me comfort me after the battles and sleepless nights B

 I m just a rush
D#m C#m F#
 Rush to blow upon the fire
E
 You re just a rush
D#m C#m F#
 Rush to blow open my mind
 (x2)

G#m C#m
 When I want fruit I can find it wherever I please
F#

E
 What if I should wake up and find dudes on the street waiting in lines or scrounging for berries?
F#
 I m losing things so fast

E
F#
 One day maybe I ll have a cool kid with a granny but I don t have a pose for applesauce on clothes
E F#
 Reminisce of the days when my mom made it all seem delicious
