

Jezebel
Anna Calvi

Tabbed by Marino Kumir (adriatic@hotmail.com)

Tuning: Half-step down (Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb)

Key: Em

notes: I ve watched a lot of video of Anna playing this song and this is exactly how she plays it. However, she always ends the song with a chord I can t quite figure out, it some kind of weird G# major so additional info on that is very welcome. For the strumming pattern(s) refer to the actual song. Also make sure you play barre Em chord where noted so.
