

Jeano

Anna & Elizabeth

[Verse]

N.C.

I m going far away

N.C.

Far away from poor Jeanette

N.C.

There s no one left to love me now

Bbm

And you too may forget

Fm

But my heart will be with you

Db

Ab

Wherever you may go

Bbm

Ab

Can you look me in the face and say the same, Jeano?

[Verse]

Bbm

When you wear the jacket red,

Fm

Or the beautiful cockade

Db

Bbm

I fear you will forget all of the promises we made

Fm

Ab

With your gun upon your shoulder

Bbm

Ab

And your saber by your side

Bbm

You ll be taking some fine lady

Ab

Db

And be making her your bride

[Verse]

Bbm

Oh if I were queen of France

Fm

Or still better Pope of Rome

Db

I d have no fighting men abroad

Bbm

Nor weeping maids at home

Fm

Ab

All the world should be at peace

Db

Ab

And the right should be the might

Bbm

I d have those that made the quarreling

Ab

Db

The only ones to fight

Bbm

Oh if I were queen of France

Fm

Or still better Pope of Rome

Db

I d have no fighting men abroad

Bbm

Nor weeping maids at home

Fm

Ab

All the world should be at peace

Db

Ab

And the right should be the might

Bbm

I d have those that made the quarreling

Ab

Db

The only ones to fight
