In the chords changing she used to hit her 6th string.. you ll get the idea listening to the song.

Verse:

You are used to leaving books behind my door you are used to crossing out empty words I am used to quitting when Iâ€™m half way through thatâ€™s when I lose all my faith in you

Chorus:

Itâ€™s the light that pushes me inside
and locks me in those verses in which Iâ€™d never like to take part

Verse:

You are used to writing notes saying you are down thatâ€™s the way you criticize love and life I am used to singing all these words that I would love to keep them off my mind

Chorus:

Itâ€™s the light that pushes me inside
and locks me in those verses
in which Iâ€™d never like to take part
