On tuesday night I met her drinking cheap wine we were
On tuesday night I met her she wore purple and fur Smiling in a dark room like a thistle in bloom

Something made me feel like we were strangely alike Then in time I knew it was really she who was the one that I ve been missing and avoiding all my time

Amy made me lie
made me frown
made me cry

Shoot me down
Take me high
Make me drown
Suck me dry

Amy my evil twin

She got purple wings too Impossible to see through

and she flew away you tell me how can this be How part of me can just flee?

I need her under my skin
Have to find that lost twin Maybe she ll complete me make me stronger and free

Then one who seek shall find and in the end she surely will be mine

Amy made me lie
made me frown
made me cry
