

Emerald Eyes
Anson Seabra

[Intro] C Am F C G

[Primeira Parte]

C
The summer night / The fading light
Am
The perfect place

The perfect time
F C G
To take you somewhere we both want to go

C
A starry drive / In mid july
Am
Park the car turn off the lights
F C G
And venture through a field all on our own

[Pré-Refrão]

Am
The birds they sang a melody
F
My heart was keeping time and we
C G
Were dancing on the edge of something new
Am
Slow at first but now it seems
F
That we ll go down in history
C G
As lovers from the start just me and you

[Refrão]

C
I´ve spent a thousand nights
Am
Lost in your emerald eyes
F C G
Lost in a place where I know you can see my soul

C
Make me lose track of time
Am

You and your emerald eyes

F

C

G

Finally found a place that i can call my home

[Segunda Parte]

C

A subtle breeze / It s you and me

Am

Chest to chest, no in between

F

C

G

And every moment s better than the last

C

Anything and everything

Am

That I could every want and need

F

C

G

Is standing right beside me in the grass

[Pré-Refrão]

Am

The birds they sang a melody

F

My heart was keeping time and we

C

G

Were dancing on the edge of something new

Am

Slow at first but still it seems

F

That we ll go down in history

C

G

As lovers from the start just me and you

[Refrão]

C

cause I've spent a thousand nights

Am

Lost in your emerald eyes

F

C

G

Lost in a place where I know you can see my soul

C

Make me lose track of time

Am

You and your emerald eyes

F

C

G

Finally found a place that i can call my home

(Am F C G)

[Refrão]

C

I've spent a thousand nights

Am

Lost in your emerald eyes

F

C

G

Lost in a place where I know you can see my soul

C

Make me lose track of time

Am

You and your emerald eyes

F

C

G

Finally found a place that i can call my home

C

oh-oh