

Come Upstairs
Anthony John Clarke

[Intro]

Am G Am G Am

[Verse]

Some people grow old so gracefully Dm G
Others let the short years take their toll C E
E
Like you, I travelled miles
And though we always seem to smile Am
F E Am
I m just not as good as you at being old

[Verse]

An sometimes we ve not been too nice to each other Dm
On occasion, I ve just been downright bad G C E
E
In spite of all of this Am F
How come it s you I always seem to miss E Am
And our years have been the best years that I ve had

[Verse]

I remember watching you pack three suitcases Dm G
Heading off to Europe on some spree C E
E
You ordered me about Am
And then you left me to keep house F E Am
Told me not to bother waving as you d leave

[Verse]

I sat alone and thought about all the good times Dm
Yes, I occupied myself most every day G C E
E
The trip did us no harm Am

You came home and rushed into my arms

F E

It was as if you'd never even been away

[Chorus]

Come upstairs and spend your life beside me

A D E

Come upstairs with that laughter in your eyes

A D

Come upstairs, undo my collar

E A

Babe, you look a million dollars

D E A

And I always knew you loved me all the time

[Instrumental]

Am G Am G Am

[Verse]

Dm

In the end, I guess it all comes down to something

G C

I may not believe in much these days, that's true

E

But as I worry about that little thing

Am

Called time upon my hands

F E

I guess I may as well spend some of it with you

[Verse]

Am Dm

And I know that you've known others and I know that I have too

G C E

But in the end, I guess it's only fair to say

E

That I'm really glad we stuck it out

Am

And I'm really glad you stayed

F E

Cause I wouldn't have had life any other way

[Chorus]

Come upstairs and spend your life beside me

A D E

Come upstairs and we'll order food and dine

A D

Come upstairs, undo my collar

E A

Babe, you look a million dollars

D E A A7

And I always knew you loved me all the time

A

D

Come upstairs, undo my collar

Babe, you look a million dollars

A

And I always knew you loved me all the time
