

Julie Brown

Anthony John Clarke

[Intro]

G C D

G C D

[Verse]

G C G
I kissed Julie Brown on Abbey Way

C G
It was a warm, close, sticky August day

D7
Her brother came out to sort me out

G C
I hit him and he ran away

G D7 G
Ah, that s no way for a love affair to end

[Chorus]

C G
There may be country music in the parlour tonight

C D7
Or a little jazz whispering on your stereo

C G
I saw her and she saw me

D7 G
I know now love s a long, long way to go

[Verse]

C G
Some days just for fun I take the train

C G
I like to shelter underneath the bridge when it starts to rain

D7
The whistle blows and the train it goes

G C
And I m all alone again

G D7 G
Ah, that s no way for a love affair to end

[Chorus]

C G
There may be country music in the parlour tonight

C D7
Or a little jazz whispering on your stereo

C G
I saw her and she saw me

D7 G
I know now love s a long, long way to go

[Instrumental]

C G C D C G D G

[Verse]

I wish she d not been born on Christmas day

Such a busy time of year, so they say

I moved too slow beneath the mistletoe

But she jingled all the way

Ah, that s no way for a love affair to end

[Verse]

Cause a lover can make you happy with a diamond ring

The same lover can make you dance and make you sing

A lover can break your heart in two

Will you cut this for your (? ? ?)

And that s no way for a love affair to end

[Chorus]

There may be country music in the parlour tonight

Or a little jazz whispering on your stereo

I saw her and she saw me

I know now love s a long, long way to go

I know now love s a long, long way to go

I know now love s a long, long way to go
