

Walking On Sunday
Anthony John Clarke

[Intro]

G A D G D

[Verse]

A G D
He left me this morning, was the sixth day of May
G D A
I will wait until September until he comes back this way
D A G D
And weâ€™ll hear such sweet music, as the autumn leaves sway
G A D
And weâ€™ll both go out walking on Sunday

[Chorus]

A G D
Come and dance at the crossroads, come kiss at the post
G D A
Come and tell me that you love me, that you love me the most
D A G D
That you care much more for me than your girl on the coast
G A D
And weâ€™ll both go out walking on Sunday

[Verse]

A G D
If my mother is watching, take me by the hand
G D A
Bow to the ladies, shake hands with the men
D A G D
If we stand by the stone wall, they will know youâ€™re my friend
G A D
And weâ€™ll both go out walking on Sunday

[Verse]

A G D
My sister is married, there is a child on the way
G D A
And Iâ€™ve not let one day pass that I have not looked her way
D A G D
Sheâ€™s a spring in her step and a smile wide as day
G A D
And they both go out walking on Sunday

[Chorus]

A G D
Come and dance at the crossroads, come kiss at the post
G D A

Come and tell me that you love me, that you love me the most
D A G D
That you care much more for me than your girl on the coast
G A D
And weâ€™ll both go out walking on Sunday

[Instrumental]

D G A D G A

[Verse]

Walk me past the orchard where the blossom blows wild
G D A
Walk me to the millstream where young trout rise for fly
D A G D
To the oak in the clearing where we once laughed and smiled
G A D
Oh, take me out walking on Sunday

[Chorus]

Come and dance at the crossroads, come kiss at the post
A G D
Come and tell me that you love me, that you love me the most
G D A
That you care much more for me than your girl on the coast
D G D
And weâ€™ll both go out walking on Sunday
G A G D
We ll both go out walking on Sunday
