MISS HALFWAY - Anya Maria

Tabbed by: Chrisio09

Tuning: EADGBE

Was asked to learn this for acoustic set im doing, but couldnt find it anywhere on the and as i was working it out, thought i might as well submit the tab, and save anyone the hassle. I think the song was used in the the soundtrack for greys anatomy. Pretty song, pretty sure it is 100% correct

The intro is just a combination of 3 chords:

	A	B	D	A
e	-----2-----		-----5-----
B	----2--2-----	----4----4-----	----7---7-----	----2--2----
G	---2--2--2-----	---4---4-----	---7---7-----	---2--2--2---
D	-2-----	-4-----	-7-----	-2-----
A	-----
E	-----

It then kicks into the verse, which is strumming 4 chords (all barred), listen to the to get the rhythm:

A          G          f#m          F

The chorus is the same as the intro, except the chords are strummed

A          B          D          A

The rest of the song is very easy to work out, being a combination of the intro chords the verse chords, except for one break, where she throws in a barred F#(9fret) then (7th fret)

Just listen to the song to work out where it comes in, its roughly about 2 minutes 25.

Hope you enjoy the song, its pretty easy to figure out if you just listen to the track

Cheers
