D G A
Well I know that you were never young
And I know you probably won t get old
But honey nobody s gonna hurt you anymore
And nobody s going to make you want to die (C)

G A D G
(C): And I ve been making promises I know I ll never keep
One of these days I m gonna leave you in your sleep
I ll have to go when the whistle blows, the whistle knows my name

G A G
Baby, I was born on a train.

Some roads are only seen at night
Ghost roads -- nothing but neon signs.
But some nights the neon gas gets free and turns into walking dead like me (C)

I ll go some cold and grey morning,
and you won t remember anything
Some people don t believe in dying,
but some of us don t believe in life (C)
