Em Bm G D x4

Em Bm G D
She swam out of tonight s phantasm
Em Bm G D Em Bm
Grabbed my hand and made it very clear
G D Em Bm G D
There s absolutely nothing for us here
Em Bm
It s a magnolia celebration
G D
To be attended on a Wednesday night
Em Bm
It s better that than get a reputation

G D
As a miserable little tyke
Em Bm
At least that s the conclusion
G D Em Bm G
She came to in this overture

Em G Bm

Bm Em
The secret door swings behind us
Am
She s saying nothing
G Bm
She s just giggling along

Em Bm G D
Her arms were folded most indignant
Em Bm G D Em Bm
Not looking like she was soon to leave
G D Em Bm G D
I had to squint in order to believe
Em Bm
And then like a butler pushing on a bookshelf
G D
And unveiling the unexpected

Em Bm G D
I who was earlier reluctant was suddenly embarrassed and corrected.
Em Bm G D Em Bm G
How could such a creature survive in such a habitat?

Em G Bm

Bm Em
The secret door swings behind us
Am
She s saying nothing
Em
She s just giggling along

Em G Bm

Bm Em
And even if they were to find us
Am Bm D
I wouldn t notice, I m completely occupied

G Cm
At all the fools on parade
Em Bm
Cavort and carry on for waiting eyes
Am Bm
