

The Weight
Ari Hest

My first tab, and its a easy version.
The song is picked, so just figure it out.
Have fun!

Am C
Im going down to the riverbank this morning
F C G
Way before the family is awake
Am C
Gonna lay me down at the foot of the water
F C G Am
And spill out all my troubles for everyones sake

Am C
You cant have love when you never can surrender
F C G
Ive been spreading around my anger like a plague
F G
Ive sailed this far with my boat on fire
F G E
Fighting flames each day, too stubborn to expire

Am C
I will soak my soul
C G
Let the river take control
G G
Let the river take control

Am C
I know its not too late
C G
To let go the weight
G Am
To let go the weight

The sun will rise and shine on me this morning
It will seep its way into my heart
And untie all the knots that have hardened me through the years
And Ill embrace wisdom that sun will impart

And with this heat burning inside me
I will warm all of the people that I love

In their darkest of hours and weakest of minds
I'll light up their nights with every star I can find

I will soak my soul
Let the river take control
Let the river take control
I know its not too late
To let go the weight
To let go the weight
