I like to fuck with you, just to make up with you
Cause the way you be screamin my name make me wanna make love to you
I might break up with you just to make up with you
At the end of the day, boy, you know that I m bout to wake up with you

I love it when we make up (yeah-eh-eh)

My energy and attitude don t really coincide
I m stayin mad all day so we can let it out tonight
Bring you to the bed where we can really make it right
