Bm - E

Oh, the boss is coming! You better look busy... they re not paying you for nothing.
There s no time for loving in the summer. In the city there s only room for the sweaty.

Bm - D - G - Bm - (Quick) E

There s no room for error, so beware, when your ass is on the line.

Bm - D - G - Em

I ve yet to witness much forgiveness in the business.

Bm - E

You better not be sitting or punch in early... but be prepared to stay real late.
You know they re not kidding when they talk in a tone that s worse than yelling.

Bm - D - G - Bm - (Quick) E

There s no room for error, so beware, when your ass is on the line.

Bm - D - G - Em

I ve yet to witness much forgiveness in this business of punching in and punching out.
