

Dreamland

Art Garfunkel

This is one of my favs... I came up with it just fooling around..

Dreamland - Art Garfunkel

G                    C                    D                    G
The sun goes down and says goodnight
Em                    C                    D
Pull your covers up real tight
G                    C                    D                    Em
By your bed we ll leave a light
Am                    G                    D                    G
To guide you off to dreamland

G                    C                    D                    G
Your pillow s soft, your bed is warm
Em                    C                    D
Your eyes are tired when day is done
G                    C                    D                    Em
One more kiss and you ll be gone
Am                    G                    D                    G
On your way to dreamland

D                    C                    G
Every sleepy boy and girl
D                    C                    G
In every bed around the world
D                    C                    G
Can hear the stars up in the sky
Am                    G                    D
Whispering a lullaby

G                    C                    D                    G
Who knows where you ll fly away
Em                    C                    D
Winging past the light of day
   C                    D                    Em
The Man-in-the-Moon and the Milky Way
Am                    G                    D                    G
Welcome you to dreamland

D                    C                    G
Every sleepy boy and girl
D                    C                    G
In every bed around the world
D                    C                    G
Can hear the stars up in the sky
Am                    G                    D

Whispering a lullaby

G                C                D        G
Who knows where you ll fly away
Em                C                D
