Hey there baby how you doing? Where you been?
It s been so long since I have seen your silly grin.
As you beamed from the sight of me, but then again,
Those days so long and gone.

I can still remember them like yesterday.
It s hard to say how everything turned out this way.
So many words, so many fingers point the blame
That led us down our separate roads.

And after all the songs have had their sing,
Did you know that you were playing just a game
With my heart, and now I can t feel anything
Worthy of the love we shared.

Those days are good and gone, but I cannot forget
The simple softness of your touch, and then your kiss
We laughed aloud to every exit that are we missed.
As we floored it past the mountains and never looked back.

Time had passed and you grew weary, I grew sick
From pains I ve felt when I begged you not to call it quits.
My piece was small and you stood firmly over it,

So proud of what you ve done.

G Bm A D
And after all the songs have had their sing,
D/F# G Bm A D
Did you know that you were playing just a game
D/F# G Bm A
With my heart, and now I can t feel anything
D D/F# G Bm A D D/F#
Worthy of the love we shared.

G Bm
Is that what you call a getaway?
A
Tell me what you got away with.
Bm A
Cause I ve seen more spine in jellyfish.
G
I ve seen more gut in eleven-year-old kids.
Have another drink and drive yourself home.
A
I hope there s ice on all the roads
Bm A
And you can think of me when you forget your seatbelt,
G A
And again when your head goes through the windshield.
Bitch

G Bm A D
And after all the songs have had their sing,
D/F# G Bm A D
Did you know that you were playing just a game
D/F# G Bm A
With my heart, and now I can t feel anything
D D/F# G
Worthy of the love we shared
Bm A
The love we shared.

Never thought goodbye would come so very quick.
But your wish is my command, command my wish.
Should you ever change your mind, just please remember this:
That I have loved you always and forever more.
