

Made Too Pretty
As Cities Burn

I don't think Cody is even finished writing this song, but there are videos of him on playing it, and this is what's on the videos. Some of the videos he plays slightly things cause I think he messes up a few times in the song.. or maybe he just hasn't how he wants to play it yet exactly.. the timing isn't right, but the chords are. key: Bb there's some time changes, watch out for that. oh and I'm sure I got the lyrics wrong in part.. but I put what I thought I heard lyric-wise

...

Ab Cm

we are somethin that you're not

Db Fm

as if you were made after we saw our own faces

Ab Cm

and knew we were gods enough.

Bbm

cause I think we were made too pretty

Db Cm

you caught us in a stare we cannot break

Bbm

we know nothing changes too slowly

Gb Ab

some day we might come down and we thoroughly say

Bbm Db Cm Bbm

Db

we are your body

Fm

how do pretty men get so ugly

Ab Cm

how'd he get all these spaces between each limb?

Db Fm

and if there's one thing bigger than my head

Ab Cm

that's the distance I've been misled.

Bbm

cause i think we were made too pretty

Db Cm

you caught me in a stare i cannot break

Bbm

we know nothing changes too slowly

Db

cause some day i might come down

Cm

and watch, im gonna come down

Bbm

cause i think we were made too pretty

Db Cm

Db Bbm

and we

Db Bbm

dont need a god we

Db Bbm

dont see in ourselves

Cm

dont see we re in need

Bbm
