

Made Too Pretty
As Cities Burn

I don't think Cody is even finished writing this song, but there are videos of him on playing it, and this is what's on the videos. Some of the videos he plays slightly things cause I think he messes up a few times in the song.. or maybe he just hasn't how he wants to play it yet exactly.. the timing isn't right, but the chords are. key: Bb there's some time changes, watch out for that. oh and I'm sure I got the lyrics wrong in part.. but I put what I thought I heard lyric-wise

...

Bb Dm

we are somethin' that you're not

Eb Gm

as if you were made after we saw our own faces and knew we were gods enough.

Cm

cause I think we were made too pretty

Eb Dm

you caught us in a stare we cannot break

Cm

we know nothing changes too slowly

G# Bb

some day we might come down and we thoroughly say

Cm Eb Dm Cm

Eb

we are your body

Gm

how do pretty men get so ugly

Bb Dm

how'd he get all these spaces between each limb?

Eb Gm

and if there's one thing bigger than my head

Bb Dm

that's the distance I've been misled.

cause i think we were made too pretty

Eb Dm

you caught me in a stare i cannot break

Cm

we know nothing changes too slowly

cause some day i might come down

Dm

and watch, im gonna come down

cause i think we were made too pretty

Eb Dm

Eb Cm

and we

Eb Cm

dont need a god we

Eb Cm

dont see in ourselves

Dm

dont see we re in need

Cm
