

The Widow
As Cities Burn

The Widow As Cities Burn

[Capo on 3rd fret]

Am
Dead man, were you ever alive?
F
Or was I just a seed buried deep inside
C
Some woman you wed
G Am
Right before you crawled out of her bed and crept down the hall?
F
Did you think of me?
C G
Did you even for a second hesitate in the doorway?
Am
It s just something that I d like to know
F
Though I d still love you if you told me
C
That you just walked away

C Em
My God, what a world you love
F
Where men bury their sons
Em
And without thought just walk away

Am Em F G [x2]

Am Em F G
And my mother s heart breaks X2
Am Em F G
Like the water inside of her

Am F
Dead man, is it being high that makes you alive?
C G
It makes you leave behind three boys and a wife in 89
Am
As the track marks inched their way up your arm

C

Em

My mother taught my brothers and I not to call you daddy

C

But to call you father

Am

F

But I believe there is something here to be learned of grace

Am

Cause I can't help but love you

F

No I can't help but love you

Am

Even with a heart that breaks

F

Like the promises that you made

Am

Like the promises that you made

F

The promises that you made

Am

F Am F

Cause I still love you

C

Em

My God, what a world you love
