

You Have My Heart
Ascend The Hill

The song is actually in E but I figured it out in D so that I can actually sing it on a Sunday Morning. So if you want the original key just raise it one whole step. Also, if you don't know the easy way to play Bm7, it's just just second fret on the A, G and high e strings with the rest open.

Oh, I'm also really bad at deciphering lyrics so I may be wrong about some of them. I couldn't find the lyrics online anywhere so this is as good as my ear can figure out.

Where could I go from our Spirit?

Where could I run from Your presence, God

You'd search for me

If I made my bed in the depths,

You'd plunge for me, You'd find me there

[Chorus]

Just to have my heart

Lord, You have my heart forever

To captivate my heart

Captivate my heart forever
