Here is a really cool Ash song off of their Trailer CD. I think this is tuned down one half step, but I m not sure. Be sure to use a lot of distortion and a Phasor or a Flanger to make it sound really awesome. Have fun. (looks best in Courier)

Chords:

EADGBE
Ab: 4665--
C: 3355--
C#: 4466--
E: 0221--

Intro:

EFEF C Ab C# G 6x

Verse 1:

(Let the last G ring) C Ab C# G
Late September you walked into my life
(Let the last G ring) C Ab C# G
I remember the autumn, I remember that night
(Let the last G ring) C Ab C# G
That smile on your face, the pale pale moon
(Let the last G ring) C Ab C# G
All those good times still left to come

Chorus:

EFEF C Ab C# G 6x
On the third time through, throw in a Phasor or a Flanger

Verse 2:

Awoke by a phone call one cold night
In my dream you had been going to die
I felt so scared I was going to lose you
When I answered the phone I alraedy knew

C Ab C# G

I cried bitter tears you had taken your own life

Chorus:

EFEF C Ab C# G 4x

Verse 3:

E F E F C Ab C# G

Down the corridor to the bedroom

E F E F C Ab C# G

I sit here in silence all alone

E F E F C Ab C# G

Alone is all I ll ever be

E F E F

Except at night when you visit my dreams

C Ab C# G E

It tears my heart I can t see you tomorrow
