CHORDS BASED ON THE LIVE PERFORMANCE, FROM ZAC BROWN'S ALBUM!

There's lots of things going on with the piano, but these are the basic chords, and you should be able to play it with these. The Ab/C (piano plays bass note C) you can play as Ab.

I hope you like! Be sure to check out my band at:

F# C#
And this little war evens everything in time

B F#
But you're not always right

This is where we belong

cause it s one wheel, four hands, two hearts trying to understand
