      Am7              G
You are first on my list

      Am7              F
After everything around has gone i know

      Am7              G
That you are first on my list

      Am7              F
When everything is shown up for what it is
-----

Plastic flowers that fight for colour
Shadows floating on the ground that always follow
like international acclaim
It comes and goes never the same

Refrão -----
      Am7      G
And i will run with it
      Am7                                F
and sunlight will break into my eyes
      Am7                                G
And it seems like you plugged the world in Am7                                F
Cos sunlight is streaming from your eyes
-----
