

You Werent Wrong
Atlantic

I heard this song and instantly adored it, however, when I went to find the chords there were none, so I decided that I would try to transcribe it by ear and this is what I came up with. It s not perfect but enjoy!

You can play this without a capo, however I would experiment with what sounds best to you. (I usually play it without a capo or with the capo on 4)

G E C CaddD
I ve said words that brought you here

G E C
And in dreams you never sounded so clear

G E C
I found reasons to drag you still

G C
Selfish seasons change against my will

Cadd G
It s not something I can handle

E C Caddd G
I can get used to this, I m not getting used to this

Caddd G
It s not something I can t manage

E C Caddd G Caddd
I can let go of this, but I canâ€™t let go---

(I m not sure about this but I think it starts with a G; I play it differently each)

You think you re breathing alone
But you re breathing on my neck
And I was sleeping when you walked in
And now you re crawling up my back
And I m watching as you dress
You think I m standing in the way
But I m tasting the things
That you will never say

Cadd G
It s not something I can handle

E	C	Cadd	G
I can get used to this, I m not getting used to this

Cadd G
It s not something I can t manage

E C Caddd G Caddd
I can let go of this, but I can't let go---
