Chimes And Church Bells Attack in Black

Standard Tuning

Intro

E GE

Verse 1

Em G Em
When the time comes for marriages to end
G C
When all the black gowns are called and sent
D G C
to darken doors and pay them penance
D G C
for wishing death before their contract s ended

Verse 2

Em G Em

When all the black gowns are hiring
G C

Art does the suffering
D G C

They don t see the beauty in the power wires
D G C

or of an honest man in poor attire

Chorus

G
But I ve heard of hope in a faceless man

Em D C
I know I ll never meet

G C G
I ve heard of life in those who love so very

Em D C
effortlessly

D Em Am who live forever in a state of vulnerability D Em to leave behind for those they ve loved Am C alot of time to weep

G C G Em D C x2

Verse 3

when the time comes for marriages to end will the world wait while we address with poignancy enough to down the city of hounds speaking humanly enough to free us from ourselves Bridge Em abandonment makes for something heartfelt and finds your ear like chimes and church bells something special will recede as something boring swells and finds your ear like chimes and church bells Chorus But I ve heard of hope in a faceless man D C I know I ll never meet C I ve heard of life in those who love so very Em D effortlessly C Em Αm who live forever in a state of vulnerability to leave behind for those they ve loved

End

alot of time to weep