Every single day I feel like I ve been tested
Since the day I was born
Learned from my youth that life would tempt me with vices
 Til my shoes are well worn
Drilled through my head like an electric incisor
Trying to make a new hole
Am I a rare case or is that just what life is?
I suppose the love s cold
Hey

Free from the pain
I said it once, I ll say it again
I m free
From the pain
I said it once, I ll say it again

In between all the lightbreak and daydreams
I could never hold true
But at night you could live in the moment
 Til the vulture finds you
 Cause every single day you feel like you ve been sliding
Since the day you were born
Is it cruel or is that just what life is?
Only in death will you know
Hey
