

Yet Will I Sing
Audra Lynn

Let this be the only love song I write
May You be the only Love in my life
I asked You to draw me, I said I would run
So though I walk through the valley, yet will I trust
I asked You to call me, I said I would come
So though I go up the mountain, yet will I run

Chorus:

Though my song be taken from me, yet will I sing; yet will I praise You
Though the joy be taken from me, yet will I laugh; yet will I shout unto You
Though the light be hidden from me, yet will I walk; yet will I run after You Though my heart be slain within me, yet will I trust; yet will I follow You

Bridge:

â€˜Cause I know whatever You do, You do through the eyes of mercy
And nothing can be added to it, nothing can be taken away
There is a time for every purpose under the heavens
So though my weeping may last for the night, oh how Your joy, it comes with the light
