

Bullets Live Acoustic
Augustana

Tabbed by: Mark Peters

There s a video of this song on youtube, with two guitars, but im only going to tab out i d say is the lead guitar, out of the two.

The song is pretty simple... i m having a few problems with figuring out how far he up the guitar and how he plays certain chords, mainly because it s dark in the video, and because i m 19 and only picked up my first instrument: the guitar! 4-5 months ago, so not very well ear trained! (Also, my guitar is crap and goes out of tune as you move up the fret board!) But other than that the majority of this should be pretty good!.. i hope!

The song is half picking and half strumming really.. if you re new to playing, then i d strumming all the way through. You still get the fundamentals of the song down, without it too hard.

Im aware that the interlude chords MAY be wrong, so if any kind person would like to me, just email and i ll sort it

Tuning: Standard No Capo

Intro (Arppegiated)

(This pattern is repeated through the verses too, but you can just strum the chords, is what he does)

CHORUS CHORDS ALL THE WAY TILL THE END

(you might have to change the rhythm a bit when it comes to the repeated its in my part at the end.. and maybe speed up chord changed)

Lyrics:

Come fly down, like a singing bird
Sings your name, I am still the same,
Black and white, no you re not to blame,
Holly sweet...put me down to shame...

Lights in the car in the park,
I m falling on my face I know who we are...
And I ain t looking down for the rest of the night
A bullet in my head ended late last night...

Jack and coke, please take off your coat,
Come and smile, please stay here a while,

Come and dance, shuffle with a glance,
When you re gone, bring in for the dawn...

She s shaking in the car with the gun in her hands,
Falling over love and a sweet romance,
And I ain t never thought it could come down to this,
A bullet in my head, with the sweetest kiss...it s in my head

It s in my head
My head
I know

She s shaking in the car with the gun in her hands,
Falling over love and a sweet romance,
And I ain t never thought it could come down to this,
A bullet in my head
My head
My head

It s in my head
It s in my head
Now it s in my head
It s in my head
Now it s in my head
