From me, Emilie

You say that youâ€™re a singer youâ€™re an actor youâ€™re a lover
Say you believe in things you keep them undercover from me
And I see the act you think youâ€™re putting on Youâ€™re in the city singing cheap pop songs for free, free

And you can run your mouth and run it donâ€™t matter
Where the words fall out right now another if you

Run your mouth and run you know you're gonna run away
From me, Emilie

[Bridge]

D C
And you, you sleep in parking lots

D C
When my, when my apartment's locked

D C
Your songs with all their choruses

D C
You say there must be more to this

And you can run your mouth and run it don't matter
Where the words fall out right now another if you
Run your mouth and run you know you're gonna run away
From me, Emilie
