

Scarborough Fair

AURORA

Am                      G                      Am
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?

Am                      G                      Am
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme

Am                      C                      G
Remember me to one who lives there

Am                      G                      Am
For once he was a true love of mine

Am                      G                      Am
Tell him to make me a cambric shirt

Am                      G                      Am
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme

Am                      C                      G
Without no seam nor fine needlework

Am                      G                      Am
And he shall be the true love of mine

Am                      G                      Am
Tell him to wash it in yonder dry well

Am                      G                      Am
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme

Am                      C                      G
Where water sprung and rain never fell

Am                      G                      Am                      ( Am G Am Am G Am )
And he shall be the true love of mine

Am                      G                      Am
Tell him to buy me an acre of land

Am                      G                      Am
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme

Am                      C                      G
Between salt water and the sea-sand

Am                      G                      Am                      ( Am G Am )
And then he ll be the true love of mine

Am                      G                      Am                      ( Am C G )
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?

Am                      C                      G
