C. D. Em
Walking down the street that we grew up in

G. C
But today is not the same

D.
It s like a different town

Em. G
A different place, a different name

C. D
I kick my heels against the curb

Em. G
Throw a stone to where you live

C. D. Em. Em
To hoping I ll see you again

C. D
Hope is low, will you show?

C. G. D. D
And I remember that day that saved us

C. Em
The way you kissed me and the salt, it filled

D D
my eyes

C. G. D. D
We remember our California

C. Em
The night we slept along the shore and

C D
washed away

C D Em G
C D Em Em

C. D Em
Lying on the sand, the waves are talking

G. C
And the humming of the trains

D
But it s a different sound

Em. G
A different cloud, a different rain
C. D
My blood flows faster with every thought
Em. G.
Of everything that happened here
C. D. Em Em
And it takes the pain away

C. D. Am
Hope is low, will you show again?

C G. D. D
And I remember that day that saved us

my eyes
