Am

Divine intervention

F

So few and far between

G

Like lightning when it touches to the ground

Am

Answer me the question

F

I m ready to believe

G

I hold my breath before I let it out

Am

The face we show, The one we hide

F

The hands we hold and leave behind

Am

For all we lose, And all we find

F

Here while we live and while we die.

Am

The wait for redemption

F

It gets heavy on the mind

G

And I burn my eyes out staring at the sun

Am

At this intersection

F

We are looking for the signs

G

And up ahead these roads they bend to one

Am

The ties we bind, The ones we break

F

The solid ground beneath us shakes

Am

What it tears down and what it makes

F

And what we give is all we ll take

Am F
To ride along the horizon

Am
When these days are gone

F
It s what we become

Am F
As we ride along the horizon

Am
When theses days are gone

F G
It s what we become.

Am
The face we show, The one we hide

F
The hands we hold and leave behind

Am
For all we lose, And all we find

F
Here while we live and while we die.

Am
The ties we bind, The ones we break

F
The solid ground beneath us shakes

Am
What it tears down and what it makes

F G
And what we give is all we ll take.

Am
Divine intervention

F
Hanging in the air we breathe

G F
And I ll fill my lungs with all that they can hold

Am
As for all the questions

F
We ve got everything we need

G F Am
To guide us now whichever way we go
