Ten More Days Avicii [Intro] Am D F Am Ten more days under water And I already know Am I ll be fine Am Ten more days till it s over Till the darkness goes Am And I see the light Am I m torn between Fulfilling my wildest dreams To satisfy the beast inside of me Am And a grounded love D That raises me high above Am The grabbing hands of cowards and of thieves Am Ten more days to find my way Ten more days till I m awake Ten more days till I don t have to fight Am I don t need a future king There ain t a prayer that I could sing Ten more days and I m gonna make it right

You see my consience betrayed me F

But baby I m strong enough to take the tides The bed it trembles beneath me but wherever the road is rough You know I ll rise Am I m torn between Fulfilling my wildest dreams To satisfy the beast inside of me Am And a grounded love The raise me high above Am The grabbing hands of cowards and of thieves Am Ten more days to find my way Ten more days till I m awake Ten more days till I don t have to fight Am I don t need a future king There ain t a prayer that I could sing Ten more days and I m gonna make it right
