You got this thing that really makes me hot
You got alot and more when you get caught
You got this thing that follows me around
You fucking bitch I hope yer insides rot

Liar, liar, liar

You see the stars through eyes lit up with lies
You got your stories all twisted up in mine
You got this thing that follows me around
You were born with glue instead of spine

Liar, liar, liar

You got this thing that really makes me hot
You got alot and more when you get caught
You got this thing that follows me around
Of thee I sing, tied to a string

Bruise violet, bruise violet, bruise violet
