Verse

G	C
Why, would you pay to see me in a cage
G	C
Why, would you pay to see me in a cage

It s all across the stage

And know
When the night has come
You might say
I was not the only the one who would ve died
What was wrong in the eyes of the cruel and unwise
And I killed a man for his giro today

On the off chance that you miss me
To the radio
I thought you might like to know you broke my heart
Can only sadden up or hedge your bets
Or take a chance and never get you again
All my ties, time and time
I keep on trying hard not to try too hard
When I forgive, I won t forget
To killing time, so I m better now
I don t need it...
Anything that makes you, feel hate
Can do without hate
Now I believe in love

Now I have gone
Oh yeah, I will pay
For everything you ve done
What was wrong
In the eyes of the unwell and unwise
And I killed a man for his giro today

Ohhh ohhh ohhhh
