chorus 1

Eb

lust of the libertines

G#

is really quite tame

Eb

It rages quite nice here beside you

G#

and your lust for fame

Eb

well fames such a sinister game, i know

it could all end this way then

Eb

some things wont be the same

G#

i m just a face, and a name on a page

Eb

well i ll be soundly sleeping, i ll be soundly sleeping

G#

i ll sleep right through that age

verse

Eb

well i can deal with all the blood on my shoes and the holes in my soul

G#

my spirit is tainted all my tears are fainted

Eb

just as long as you

Bb

you dont forget to

Eb

uh-oh-oh

cut me on the wall

Eb

Bb

by the graffiti of all the the things i just couldn t say

Eb

Cm

shove me up the wall

G#

Eb

oh my darling was the kind of loving now

Bb

Eb

you ve left me in the family way again verse 2 (as verse 1)

the dust on my tambourine really can be explained

i need to shake it more often shake away the blame

well fames such a sinister game

oh i know the taste of goulash in your mouth as you stumble off stage forget-me-nots bloom on this day then but they wither with age

chorus

outro (same as verse)

end
