

Climbing The Wall
Backstreet Boys

Beware.. since I haven't heard this song from any other source than live clips from the House of Blues concert, it's a pretty free interpretation of the song.. I think it sounds good acoustic, and if you're looking for the clip of the song - check out the BSB forums @ livedaily.com. People there probably have several versions :)

Climbing the Wall - Backstreet Boys 2004

Intro: A - Aadd2*

Verse:

A Aadd2* A Aadd2*

Close your eyes, make a wish

Dmaj*

This could last forever

D Dsus4* (repeat from beginning)

If only you could stay with me now

So tell me what it is that keeps us from each other now

Yeah, it's coming to get me

E5* E

You're under my skin

Dmaj*

No I can't ever let you go

D

You're a part of me now

Dsus4* Asus* E (repeat)

Caught by the taste of your kiss

And I don't wanna know the reason why I can't stay forever like this

D Dsus4* Asus* E

Now I'm climbing the walls cuz I miss you

I haven't tried figuring out Howie's little bridge cuz I can't remember how it's sung..

Now, the chords..

Asus: x02200

Aadd2: x02230

Dmaj: xx0222

Dsus: x00230

E5: x4420(x)

Those are probably not the correct names of the chords, but that s why I marked them with a star.

KTBSPA ;)
