You Can Let Go
Backstreet Boys

     intro: (B F# C#m E) - 2x B

                    F#   C#m
I could see in your eyes
                      E   B
Broken windows, falling skies
                 F#   C#m   E   B
Baby, baby, what you hiding from
                     F#   C#m
Like they followed you around
                   E   B
Lately nowhere to be found
                     F#   C#m   E
Don t you know that I m your place to run
Refrão **-------------
You ve been holding on so long
B   F#   C#m
Trying to make believe that nothin s wrong
    E   F#
Not letting it show
      E
And there ain t nothing you can do
   B   F#
To make me turn away from you
C#m   G#m   F#
I need you to know
                    B F# C#m E B
That you can let go

                    F#   C#m
Sifting through the shattered dreams
              E   B
Living in the in between
               F#   C#m
Baby, baby it s going to be all right
     E
All right
(you can let go)

And when you re lost, let down,
F#   C#m
Disappointed, jerked around
           E   B
In this cold, cold world
               A   C#m
I will always be by your side

Refrão ------------
        E
Oooh, you ve been holding on so long
B                   F#                      C#m
Trying to make believe that nothin s wrong
     E          F#
Not letting it show
      E
And there ain t nothing you can do
   B                   F#
To make me turn away from you
C#m   G#m        F#
I need you to know
                    F#m
That you can let go
--------------------
                                      B
Don t be afraid when you re falling apart
                                    A
Don t hesitate I ll be right where you are ..

Open your eyes
                      B     C#
There s a crack in the dark
              G#              D#m
You never let me see you cryin
                        F#          C#
You locked it somewhere deep inside
           G#              D#m
Baby, baby, let me hold you tight

Make it all right
E
  Baby, baby, it s gonna be all right
         B
Cause I m by your side
        F#                    C#m        E           F#
When the whole world turns against you,    yeah, yeah
E
         B
Cause I m by your side
        F#                    C#m        E           F#
When the whole world turns against you,    yeah, yeah
