

Lost Creek

Bad Books

Bad Books - Lost Creek (Standard Tuning, Capo - 1)

Chords relative to capo

F A# F
I felt like somebody somewhere could see

F A# F
My dad and Russell running through the woods of lost creek

A# F
Oh it's a shame Jessica never got clean,

B# A# B# F
You know the last time I saw her was honestly awful for me

F A# F
Lately on Sundays he started to sleep,

F A# F
Trading in on your fathers theology

B# A#
I know you loved him but not equally,

B# A#
To your big tent revival ministry

B# A# B# F
That never really turned out to be worth much of anything

B# A# B# F
Gonna die with that ego, you never fly he never sleeps

F A# F
Vacated board room with wine on the whitest teeth

F A# F
The guiltiest movements the ponders secrets can keep

B# A#
You say you love me but if you could see

B# A#
That the pain that comes when you touch me

B# A# B# F

Never really turns out to be worth much of anything

B#

A# B# F

The problem will resurface eventually

INTERLUDE

F A# F F

F A# F F

B# A# B# F

F

A#

F

I felt like somebody somewhere could see

F

A#

F

My dad and Russell playing with my cousin and me

A#

F

Do you know how to get back to Lost Creek?

B#

A#

B#

F

To that house in the forest where laughter came menacingly

A#

B#

A#

F

Back when no problems surfaced and we learned eventually

A#

F

MmmmmmmMMmmmm

A#

F

MmmmmmmMMmmmm

Outro

B# A# F