

Big Day Coming
Bad Cash Quartet

Big day coming- Bad cash quartet
Tabbed by: Per TÃ¶rnkrantz

(Capo on third fret)

Verse:

                  D                  G
There is a big day coming for me,
                  D                  G
There is a big day coming you see
                  C                                  G
and it won't be long, it won't be long
                  D                  G
There is something growing in me
                                  D                  G
and there is something dying for me,
                  C and there can't be two D
no there can't be two

Chorus:

          G          C                  G
I hate everything I do
                  C
to come on through
                  G
(to come on trough)

Verse:

There is a big day coming for me,
there is a big day coming you see
and it won't be long
There is something growing in me,
and there is something dying for me
and there can't be two,
no there can't be two

Chorus:

I hate everything I do
to come on trough

Verse:

There is a big day coming for me,
there is a big day coming you see
and it won't be long...

Chorus:

I hate everything I do
to come on trough

End on A G...
