

Adams Atoms
Bad Religion

Intro:

Em                      D

Some live, some die

C    G    D        C

Everybody wonders why we re here should even try

G    D        C        G

Philosophies lost in the night

Verse1:

D
C
 A beacon in the distance, you gotta turn around
G
D
 Its vestige deeply flickers in elocution sound
D
G
 The modernist chronometer uptining underbound
D
 Pretensions of a higher ground

Chorus1:

Higher ground
Introspective paradise found
Adam s atoms resound

Verse2:

The economy of nature, the dead and shallow graves
The particles of happiness elude us in their names
A psycho-symbiotical reflection on the waves
Eternal is the night and day

Chorus2:

Night and day
Omnipresency those who fade
Adam s atoms remain

Break:

Em D C G D C G D
G

Verse3:

The righteous opposition has led us all astray
One side against the other, one loses one reclaimed
And if reconciliation eludes us every day
Then will we ever find a way?

Last Chorus:

C Em

Find a way

G D Em

Not without religion as gaze

C Em G D Em

Adam s atoms remain

C Em G D Em

Adam s atoms betray

C Em G D Em

Adam s atoms remain
